About the Programs

Kids Night Out and Youth Lock-In's are programs offered by Luther Park Bible Camp during the school year. It is a night of supervised, God-centered programming at your church! This is a great way for parents to have a night to themselves and children to experience camp in the convenience of your own church.

The cost includes staff for up to 30 children or youth and program materials. Additional staff can be requested for an additional cost or the church can provide additional chaperones. Snack or meals are the responsibility of the church.
